If McCabe was really shady.. Why is he fighting to keep NBH alive and using people like @JohnnyTabacco to help vs just killing it and hiding the $MMTLP evidence? Even crazier there are non-shareholders continuing to make up stories or throwing mud on a preferred share dividend that was never meant to trade and has remain in a unsettled state for over 700 days. Why do they care about something they never purchase? I'll wait for answer drinking my Kool-aid and doing what I can to get the truth exposed. Thanks.
